

This is where your story gets good.

Goldstine, Skrodzki, Russian, Nemeć and Hoff, Ltd. Brand Story

Do you have a legal team who knows what really matters to you?

Whether you're a small, medium or large business owner or have personal matters to address, legal representation you can trust translates into peace of mind.

Goldstine, Skrodzki, Russian, Nemeć and Hoff, Ltd. combines a personal interest in you with an unwavering commitment to aggressively pursue the best results. With a broad range of practice areas and more than 25 attorneys, our practice has grown along with the success of our clients. Many of these relationships span generations.

Although the physical landscape has changed over the years, our firm's dedication to lifetime partnerships, integrity, responsiveness and quality remains the same. Business relationships have become friendships, with trust running deep between our attorneys and clients. Our philosophy is that when we do our very best for our clients, we perpetuate our goals of developing solid client relationships and providing our clients with unmatched service and attention.

We've built our legacy through more than 50 years of experience by focusing on the unique requirements of each of our clients and by:

- Aligning the right experience and expertise through a team approach
- Reaching sound and practical solutions by uncovering the real issues
- Keeping clients well informed and integrally involved in all strategic decision making

Our clients are individuals, closely-held businesses, publicly-traded companies, and municipalities in need of legal assistance in the areas of business and corporate law, construction law, employment and labor law, estate and tax planning, family law, land use and development, local government, litigation and real estate law. They come to us for our sound judgment and tenacious representation.

The service we provide is more than knowledge of the law. Our service is a commitment and an investment in knowing—who you are, what you do, and why you do it. We know there are no shortcuts to providing quality legal services. The difference between knowledge and knowing is what matters.

Goldstine, Skrodzki, Russian, Nemeć and Hoff, Ltd.

Knowing. What Matters.